

Farmworkers in New York have about the same rights as they did in 1900. Supporting the Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act (FFLPA) will help local farmworkers get the same rights all the rest of us enjoy.

FFLPA would:

- Establish an 8 hour workday
- Allow farmworkers an optional day of rest per week
- Prohibit child farmworkers from being paid below a minimum wage
- Give farmworkers the right to bargain collectively
- Ensure that housing facilities meet basic standards under the Sanitary Code
- Provide worker's comp to employees injured on the job

Dear Sen. Simcha Felder, Sen. Adriano Espaillat, Sen. Jeffrey Klein, Sen. Diane Savino, Sen. Martin Golden, and Sen. Andrew Lanza,

Support the Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act (FFLPA)! I, as a New Yorker, care about the conditions under which produce is picked and cows are milked.
